CHAPTER II

BENJAMIN HARPER, SR., REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER

Identity Benjamin's Wife

The majority of Benjamin Harper records given here were collected by the late Mrs. Julian Starr, Sr., the former Eula Massey. She was assisted in her research by Mrs. E. G. Gaither of Statesville, North Carolina, who sent the Benjamin Harper, Jr. Bible Records.

Mrs. Starr asserted that family tradition said that Benjamin Harper, Sr.'s wife was Martha Knox. This seems plausible in view of the fact that Benjamin's brother, Dr. Daniel Harper, was associated with Dr. James Knox in partnership.

The Knox name is further strengthened by the fact that among those who came as passengers with the Harpers on the Earl of Donegal there was a Knox family. John Knox, aged 50, and his wife Elizabeth, aged 40, could easily have been the parents of the 24 year old Martha. In the Knox family there was a sixteen year old James, probably the future doctor, one child named Hugh and one named Sarah. On the same ship there were William Knox, aged 50, and the Reverend William Knox, aged 24.

The Benjamin Harper, Sr., Family<sup>7</sup>

Benjamin Harper married Martha Knox and to them were born:

1. William Harper, born 1763 in Ireland; died 1799 in Lancaster County, S. C., buried in Old Waxhaw Presbyterian Church cemetery not far from the grave of his father.
2. James Harper, married Nancy_____.

7. Lancaster County Old Deeds, Book G, page 275 show that those listed here sold property together indicating they were heirs of Benjamin.

3. Martha S. Harper, born July 4, 1804, died Oct. 21, 1805; buried Old Waxhaw Presbyterian Church cemetery, Lancaster County, S. C.
4. Benjamin Harper, born Mar. 15, 1806, died July 1, 1816.
5. John Harper, born Nov. 1, 1809, died Sept. 15, 1814.
6. Margaret Eliza Harper, born June 15, 1814; married Vaughan by whom she had one child, John C. Vaughan, born July 9, 1835, died Oct. 14, 1836. The late Mrs. Julian Starr, Sr., wrote: "After Vaughan's death Aunt Eliza married Taylor Gilmore, the marriage was not happy. She finally left him and made her home with my grandfather, Benjamin Harper Massey, who was her nephew. She died at his home and in buried on his lot in the New Unity cemetery at Fort Mill, South Carolina."

Dear Mr. Harper:

We received your letter requesting the entire will for Andrew Knox. I am sorry but we only have the same abstract that you referred to in your letter. I would like to offer two suggestions for you to try which may be helpful. One is the Public Library in Charleston and the other is the State Archives in Columbia. I am giving you both addresses.

If I were you, I would first try the State Archives.

As I was looking through material that might help you, I found this little bit on the Harper family that involves a Knox. I thought it might be helpful.

If we can help you further please let us know.

Sincerely,

Loyal Order of Moose

Vernon "Gar" Stork and Zola Mae Harper were crowned Their Majesties, King Wollef XIX and Queen Hatchataw XIX, at the 19th annual carnival ball of the Loyal Order of Moose in Moss Point.

His Majesty has been a member of LOOM for nine years. He has held the post of trustee, treasurer and is currently holding the post of prelate. He chairs the audit committee and is a second degree Moose (Legionnaire).

Stork and his wife, the former Mildred Cain, have resided in the Fort Lakes area for 21 years and are the parents of two sons and four daughters — Kelvin Stork, Tim Stork, Arlene Lawrence, Paula Stork, Lorie Stacey and Rita Hopper. They also have nine grandchildren.

Her Majesty is a member of the Women of the Moose. She has served as senior regent and chaired several committees during her membership in the WOTM.

Mrs. Harper has earned her Academy of Friendship Degree. Her husband is the late Earnest Harper, a long-time member of LOOM. She has made her residence in Pascagoula for the past 35 years and has one son and three daughters — Jimmy Roberds, Betty Grice, Agnes White and Dian Schexnayder. She has 11 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

His Majesty wore the traditional white tuxedo with white accessories. His red velvet train, lined with white satin, was decorated in geometrical figures of gold braid and sequins. He carried a scepter encrusted with brilliant rhinestones.

Her Majesty wore a high-necked white ballroom gown of white taffeta and sheer white overlays trimmed with white lace. The high-waisted bodice was complimented with lace and white seed pearl buttons. The white overlay fell from the waist and was brilliantly jeweled with sequins which came together at the train with rows of white lace.

Long bishop sleeves of sheer overlay were cuffed with lace and sequins. A veil of lace and sequins trailed behind her, and she wore a ruby rhinestone and sequin-trimmed masque. Her train of white satin was decorated with rhinestones and sequins on lace.

She carried an arm bouquet of red, long-stemmed roses, tied in red satin ribbons. Her accessories included silver earrings and a silver necklace.

The ball and coronation were held in the hall of the Moose home where multi-colored streamers and musical instruments, musical notes, records and dancers hung on the walls, depicting the theme of of "Fabulous Fifties."

Ball chair Chuck Eiland opened the program by introducing emcee Roland Hillebrand. The tableau script dramatized the music makers of the era.

Preceding the entrance of the court was the welcome and seating of retiring royalty, Norman and Doris Saksa as Their Majesties, King Wollef XVIII, and Queen Hatchataw XVIII, who ascended the throne from which they had first ruled one year before.

Members of the court were led by Their Graces, Grand Duke Paul Parker and Grand Duchess Faye Williamson.

Gentlemen of the court were Duke Wendell Lee, Duke Phil Ray Bryant, Duke Jewell Denney, Duke Richard Lawrence, Duke Louis Kraft, Duke Johnny Nelson and Duke Drew Hopper.

Gentlewomen of the court were Duchess Twynette Ellis, Duchess Margie Griffin, Duchess Janice Eiland, Duchess Myrtle Jo Ready, Duchess Bobbie Howell, Duchess Genevieve Denney and Duchess Cindy Herbert.

The identity of the new king and queen remained a secret and were only revealed at the moment of coronation.

Music was by the Doby Show Band of Gulfport.

Dear Patricia Edwards,

I am currently researching my maternal great-great grandfather, Richard B. G. Harper.

In my research, here in Houston at the Clayton Library, I ran across your book, intitled, "Who Lived Where, Perry County, Ms.".

In your book, I found that Edward Harper, and William Hudson bought land, which is on page 88. Then, I discovered your footnote, found on page 95 about Edward Harper, and Mary Hudson.

My problem is this. I'm trying to connect my Richard B. G. Harper with Edward Harper. I've had difficulty proving that my Richard B. ~~G~~. Harper is the son of Edward Harper.

I'm confused because in the records that I have researched in Lauderdale County, Ms., I've not only found my Richard B. G. Harper, but I also discovered there is a Richard B. Harper in the same county, and appears to be about the same age as my Richard. In fact, it appears that Richard B. sold land to my Richard B. G.

Which brings me to why I've sent this query to you. I noticed in the frount of the book it said you kept a card file on people who were mentioned in the footnotes, and a lot of it was from family knowledge. Can you tell me who Edward and Mary Harpers children were? If not, do you have any suggestions as to where I could find out?

Any help you could give me would be greatly appreciated. It goes without saying, if there are fees for your services, please let me know what they are.

I hope you can help me, and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Thank you,

J. W. Stevens
